A long time ago—in June of 2005—I went to Iona, Scotland while I was on sabbatical from the congregation that I was serving. Iona, Scotland is a wondrous place. It is an island in the Western Hebrides with ancient buildings, no streetlights, and plenty of sheep. There are no roads on the island, but plenty of paths on which to wander and reflect and pray.

I thought I would share an affirmation of faith from the Iona Abbey Worship Book with you here:

In the midst of hunger and war...

We celebrate the promise of plenty and peace.

In the midst of oppression and tyranny...

We celebrate the promise of service and freedom.

In the midst of doubt and despair...

We celebrate the promise of faith and hope.

In the midst of fear and betrayal...

We celebrate the promise of joy and loyalty.

In the midst of hatred and death...

We celebrate the promise of love and life.

In the midst of sin and decay...

We celebrate the promise of salvation and renewal.

In the midst of death on every side...

We celebrate the promise of the Living Christ.

Amen.

As we return from our summer vacations and go about the mission and ministry that is ever before us...let us celebrate all of the gifts that God has given to us.

God bless our students and teachers as they return to school.
